STINGER HOCKEY PREVIEW

THE MILITARY SKATES INTO CONCORDIA SATURDAY

A vastly improved Concordia Stingers men's hockey team will take to the ice for their first regular season home game of 1987-88 this Saturday October 24th.

Concordia will host Royal Military College (RMC) of Kingston in a 3:30 p.m. start at the Loyola rink. As a special promotion, all paying customers wearing something military will receive a free Molson beer.

Last weekend the Stingers competed in the Trois Rivieres tournament, losing 6-4 in the final to the host team. Concordia tied Waterloo 6-6 Saturday and upended Georgian College 6-2 Friday. Concordia goalie Dave Sharpe and forward Richard Laplante were named to the tournament all-star team.

Stingers head coach Paul Arsenault heads into his 24th season behind the bench excited about the new format which has seen the creation of a 17 team league.

Concordia and its now defunct Quebec University Hockey League (QUHL) partners Trois Rivieres, McGill and Ottawa are joined by RMC and Queen's in the Ontario Universities Athletic Association (OUAA) East Division. Toronto, York, Ryerson, Western, Guelph and Wilfrid Laurier make up the central division while Brock, Windsor, McMaster, Waterloo and Laurentian are in the West.

Teams in the West and Central Divisions will play 26 games while squads in the East have 25 game schedules. The top four teams in each section will advance to the playoffs and the three division titleholders plus the club with the best inter-divisional record are then to proceed to the four team league championship in March, known as the Queens's Cup Tournament.

Concordia is trying to regain the form which saw it capture nine consecutive provincial titles, a string which ended three years ago.

Last season the Stingers compiled an overall mark of 5-22-2. In conference action they were 2-15-1. However, a successful holiday tour of Czechoslovakia saw them fashion a 2-3-1 record.

This year's squad features a fine mix of rookies and veterans. Sharpe is back as the first-string goalie. The defence is anchored by returnees Martin Foy and Todd Adams. Up front, scoring punch is provided by veterans Mike Deegan, Mark Mahon, Tod Button, Paul Brophy and newcomers Frank Sinfield and Richard Laplante.

Key losses from last year's roster include defenceman Giles Lascelle and forward Frankie Morris, both of whom have graduated.
